

UPDATE AND CONSULTATION DECEMBER 2023

| TIME | WHAT | WHO |
|-------|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 9.15 | Registration and coffee | |
| 9.30 | Welcome and Introductions | All |
| 9.35 | Updates: Local and National | Gary Latchford |
| 10.05 | Neuropsychology across clinical placements | Charlotte Baker |
| 10.45 | BREAK | |
| 11.15 | Feedback – focussing on Placements | Tom Isherwood |
| 11.35 | ED&I and Anti-racism: Mentoring and Curriculum | Ruth Akindele and Maya Loonat |
| 11.55 | Supervising DClin Research | Beckie Yeates |
| 12.15 | Questions | All |

FEEDBACK – SHARING SUCCESS

- Alternative Handbook
- Placement Audit
- Your responses/reflections
- Application Rates

ALTERNATIVE HANDBOOK (2024) BPS

PLACEMENT AUDIT FINDINGS – WHAT WORKS WELL

- Placement ratings are very positive overall
- Some things trainees really value
 - Supervision
 - Consistency and cover
 - Time together, joint working, seeing supervisors ‘in action’
 - Shared attention to ‘zone of proximal development’
 - Focussed time thinking about socio-political context esp. diversity and equity

MORE OF WHAT WORKS WELL

- Clinical practice
 - Support with theory practice links
 - Opportunities for and support with inter-professional working
 - Shadowing, joint working, consultation
 - Formulation
 - In/of teams and systems
 - Reformulation

A BIT MORE...

- Teaching
 - To teams on psychological issues/skills/dilemmas
 - Facilitating discussions on PPD – esp. antiracism and intersectionality
- Support
 - Facilitating reflective practice
 - Supervision of others
- Recognising influence
 - ‘micro’ opportunities as well as named leadership activities

WHERE THERE IS MORE VARIABILITY

- Service User Involvement
 - Opportunities for meaningful/impactful consultation
 - Prioritisation within services
- Research and evaluation
 - Active use of outcome measures
 - Opportunities outside of systematic case study and service evaluation projects

DEVELOPMENT

- On a placement in your team/service - How could trainees be more involved in
 - Service User Involvement in service development
 - Research, Evaluation and Audit opportunities
- Can we support you with this?

HOT OFF THE PRESS

APPLICATIONS FOR 2024 ENTRY*

Applications per place

* Assumes intake at 2023 numbers

-
- Thank you!
- 